Read the story. Choose a word from the box. Write the correct word next to numbers 1-5. There is one example.

Example	island	slowly	foggy	minutes	broken else	once	spring	tried	believe

Katy and Fred went to stay with their cousin, David, who lives on an island. They wanted to see the whales which visited there just (1) a year. On the second day, David's dad took the children down to the beach to look for whales. The children were very excited. They waited for a long time, but no whales came. Then the weather got (2) so they went home. They did this for three days but they didn't see any whales. On the fifth day, they (3) again. They sat on some rocks in the sun. Katy said, 'It doesn't matter if we don't see any whales because I'm so happy!' Then Katy started singing. After a few (4), several whales appeared. David's dad shouted, 'Look! They heard you sing and they are coming to listen! I don't Teacher Resource Sites If you are a teacher or a parent, teachers' resources websites are another option to find reading worksheets. Some sites like Pay Teachers teachers offer worksheets they created and offer them for sale. Others are more collaborative and give teachers a place to share best practices and materials with others. If you are looking for materials to use in a home school environment or for after-school practice, check out these sites. In addition to worksheets, you get access to a community of educators who can help you find the right materials for your children. Literacy programs The literacy programs for profit also offer free worksheets for parents and teachers. Although they are usually designed for use with the company program, you can use them for other reasons. For example, Reading Horizons has downloadable sound worksheets that work with its digital sound program and face-to-face lessons. English learning sites are other good sources. As these programs are oriented toward children learning English, they incorporate social studies and science lessons along with reading skills. Non-profit literacy groups/Organizations such as ReadWorks and eReader read understanding worksheets available on their websites. You can find reading passages with questions sets and vocabulary support to help children practice and improve their reading skills. On the ReadWorks site, you can search for worksheets by degree level, type of text and topic.
